Bautizos en Santo Tomás

¿Sabías que para ser padrino o madrina de Bautismo debes mayor de 16 años, y haber recibido el sacramento de Bautismo, Primera Comunión y Confirmación?

Además, los padrinos deben ser personas de buena conducta y si tienen pareja, su unión debe estar bendecida por la Iglesia Católica.

NO se admiten personas que estén casadas sólo civilmente o "acompañados" de su pareja fuera del matrimonio por la Iglesia (aunque sólo uno de ellos desee participar como padrino o madrina.)

Para bautizar en Santo Tomás el Apóstol, papás y padrinos deben tomar una plática prebautismal ANTES de elegir la fecha del bautismo.

Llama a la Oficina Parroquial para conocer las próximas fechas de pláticas y otros requisitos necesarios para bautizar en nuestra parroquia.

Do you really know the Mass?

Embracing Changes in the New Edition of the Roman Missal

Following the greeting dialogue, we move into the Penitential "Act". Note that referring to this as an act rather than a rite more strongly conveys the reality that admitting guilt and asking for forgiveness are efficacious actions – i.e., the very uttering of these words achieves the desired effect of true contrition. One of the options for the Penitential Act is the prayer we call the Confiteor ("I confess to almighty God...").

In the new translation, there will be replacement to our current wording of "I have sinned through my own fault" with "I have greatly sinned", echoing a scriptural allusion found in the Latin text – David's humble admission of his own failings (1 Chronicles 21:8). The translation then includes the phrase, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault, a more direct translation of the words that appear in the Latin ("mea culpa, mea culpa, mea maxima culpa.") This phrase follows the literary element of repetition found in other parts of the ritual texts – e.g., the Holy, Holy, Holy; the three invocations of Lord have mercy, Christ have mercy, Lord have mercy. These additions will add to a more humble disposition as we prepare to celebrate the liturgy.
