SUSTAIN OUR FAITH

We meet the Lord in the strangest places. Elijah spent the night listening to the wind, feeling the earthquake and surrounded with fire, but the Lord was not in any of these. He came in a gentle breeze. We would like great events for meeting our God, but most often he stirs our hearts and minds very gently. If we listen, we encounter the Lord. Like Peter, we walk toward the Lord. The Lord says, "Come!" We respond: "Maranatha! Come, Lord Jesus, and sustain our faith!"

Do you really know the Mass?

Embracing Changes in the New Edition of the Roman Missal

Invitation to Prayer

After the Priest washes his hands, he extends an invitation to prayer. Whereas the current translation of the Orate, fratres ("Pray, brethren") has "our sacrifice," the new translation is changed to "my sacrifice and yours." This seemingly slight distinction, found in the original Latin, in fact conveys the reality that those who are gathered offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in different ways. The Priest offers it on our behalf in a special manner, in persona Christi (in the person of Christ), by virtue of his ordination.

But those of us in the pews are not idle spectators. The Second Vatican Council's Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, art. 48, says that the faithful should be "conscious" participants "by offering the Immaculate Victim, not only through the hands of the Priest, but also with him, they should learn also to offer themselves."

This call to join ourselves to the action of the priest is then answered when the people stand and make their response, which is also referred to by the first words of the prayer in Latin, Suscipiat Dominus. There is only one change to this prayer by the people, though it is not insignificant. The addition of "holy" reminds us that the Church belongs to Christ, and is founded on His grace.
