Praying with People is a new opportunity at St. Thomas to put your faith into action and to live as a parish family.

Everyone is invited to come on the 2nd Monday of the month for a time of simple prayer, made with hope in faith.

We will gather as family and then break into small groups for personal prayer time. When we pray together, we are living out the Commandment to “Love One Another.” Invite friends, family and co-workers – but most of all – please come.

Do you really know the Mass?

Mystery of Faith (formerly the Memorial Acclamation)

As part of the upcoming changes after the consecration, rather than saying: "Let us proclaim the mystery of faith," the Priest will simply announce, "The mystery of faith." It will be a declarative statement about the Eucharist now present. Blessed John Paul II reflected on these words in his encyclical, Ecclesia de Eucharistia, writing that the very thought of the mysterious gift of the Holy Eucharist should fill us with "profound amazement and gratitude" (no. 5).

In response, the people shall make one of three revised acclamations. All three are rooted in Scripture. Option A, and especially option B, are derived from 1 Corinthians 11:26 – "For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes." And Christ's title in option C is found in John 4:42, when the woman who met Jesus at the well is told by her fellow Samaritans, "we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

The three acclamations all incorporate familiar elements, although some of the phrases have been rearranged when compared to our present text. One acclamation that we use now – "Dying you destroyed our death..." – has been substantially amended to shift the emphasis more upon Christ's own death and Resurrection.

What is conspicuously absent is the popular current acclamation, "Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again." This line, although powerful, is not found in the Latin. In addition, unlike the other acclamations, it does not directly address Christ made present in the Blessed Sacrament, nor does it speak of our relationship with Him.

SALVATION

God labors for us so that we might work for him. Gently, the Lord encourages us to take up the cross of our baptismal initiation and follow Jesus. This encouragement takes many forms tailored to each of our weaknesses and strengths. By pushing us, encouraging us and helping us, the Lord points us toward the goal of salvation. Jesus seeks us out; he pulls us toward him by many paths. Be quiet and feel his tug!
