World Day of Prayer for Peace September 11th

God of peace, bring your peace to our violent world:
 peace in the hearts of all men and women,
 and peace among the nations of the earth.

Turn to your way of love
 those whose hearts and minds
 are consumed with hatred.

God of understanding,
 overwhelmed by the magnitude of this tragedy,
 we seek your light and guidance
 as we confront such terrible events.

Grant that those whose lives were spared
 may live so that the lives lost ...
 may not have been lost in vain.

Comfort and console us,
 strengthen us in hope,
 and give us the wisdom and courage
 to work tirelessly for a world
 where true peace and love reign
 among nations and in the hearts of all.

Do You know the Mass? Concluding Rites

After the Priest has recited or sung the Prayer after Communion, we arrive at the Concluding Rites. For the last time during the Mass, the Priest says, "The Lord be with you," and we respond, "And with your spirit."

Then comes the final blessing (sometimes preceded by a prayer or three-fold solemn blessing on special occasions, or by the pontifical blessing if a Bishop is celebrant): "May almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit."

Following our response of "Amen" to the final blessing, Mass is concluded with the dismissal, said or sung by the Priest (or a Deacon, if one is present). With the new Missal, our three current dismissal formulas will be replaced by four options.

The first corresponds to the actual Latin dismissal, which is familiar to many: "Ite, missa est." In fact, this is where the word "Mass" comes from - "missa est" - which at its most fundamental level means "it is sent" or "it is the dismissal." More than a mere declaration that it is time to leave, this has the function of emphasizing our Christian call to "mission" (a word with the same Latin origins). In our parish this mission takes different dimensions: involvement with St. Vincent De Paul, Ignite!, Evangelization Retreats, Bible Studies, Jamaican Ministry, Knights of Columbus, JustFaith, to mention but a few - simply put: it is a call to get involved.

Pope Benedict XVI spoke of this in Sacramentum Caritatis, the Apostolic Exhortation he released in 2007 as a follow-up to the 2005 Synod of Bishops on the Holy Eucharist. He said our participation in the Eucharistic Liturgy should translate into a life in imitation of Christ, such that from the Sacred Liturgy should spring forth the "missionary nature of the Church." He wrote that it would be helpful to "provide new texts" for the final blessing "in order to make this connection clear" (no. 51). Therefore, the Holy Father himself selected the three other dismissal formulas that we shall receive, and they were added to the Latin text of the Missal.

Our response at the dismissal remains the same: "Thanks be to God." What else can we do except give thanks to God? He has provided us with an inestimable gift in the Holy Mass, and a means by which He draws us and the entire world into closer communion with Him.
