Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, I pray for
 Your faithful and fervent priests;
 for Your unfaithful and tepid priests;
 for Your priests laboring at home
 or abroad in distant mission fields;
 for Your tempted priests;
 for Your lonely and desolate priests;
 for Your young priests;
 for Your dying priests;
 for the souls of Your priests in purgatory.
 But above all I recommend to You
 the priests dearest to me:
 the priest who baptized me;
 the priest who absolved me from my sins;
 the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion;
 the priests who taught and instructed me;
 all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way.
 O Jesus, keep them all close to Your heart, and bless them abundantly
 in time and in eternity. Amen.

St. Therese of Lisieux

LITURGY AND LIFE

Continuing our dialogue on the correlation between liturgy and our daily life, we start from where this column ended last week. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) teaches that the Eucharist helps us to Grow in union with Christ, avoid sin, increase in charity, strengthen communion with our brothers and sisters, and recognize Christ in the poorest and most vulnerable members of society (see CCC, nos. 1391-1397). But what does that mean in daily life? It is this question that we begin to explore today and will continue in the next bulletin. The first answer to this question is a challenge to us as Christians and more so Catholics to live a life of prayer.

Living a life of Prayer

Our prayer lives should not be limited to a single hour on Sunday mornings. In fact, the richer our prayer lives are throughout the week, the more fully we will be able to enter into the Sunday celebration of the Eucharist. Here are some ways to make your daily life more prayerful:

- Try attending a daily Mass at least once a week. If not here at St. Thomas the Apostle, a church near your job may offer lunchtime Mass.
- Stop by a church before or after work or on your lunch hour for fifteen minutes of quiet prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.
- Schedule time for family prayer at least once a week. This prayer can be as simple as saying the Our Father or a decade of the Rosary together.
- Take time during the week to read or listen to the readings for the upcoming Sunday. The readings are available online (in print and audio) at www.usccb.org/nab.
- If you are aware of serious sin, receive the Sacrament of Penance before you receive Holy Communion again.
- Begin your day with a brief prayer of thanksgiving to God, offering your day to him.
- End your day with an examination of conscience, looking at your successes and failures in what you have done or what you have failed to do.
