REPENT

Repent and believe the good news! Come, follow me! Andrew, first to respond, brought along his brother Simon whom Jesus nicknamed Cephas, which means Peter, which means rock. Then came the fisher brothers, James and John. These four are the great witnesses to Jesus' public work. We hear the same call: "Come, follow me" into new life. God raises us up, too, if we follow Jesus. Time is short. The world we know is passing away. Are we ready to give witness?

PEW ANGELS NEEDED!

Do you have some time on Mondays and/or Fridays at 10:00 a.m. to straighten up the pews in the church?

Margarette Lesperance, a parishioner, is one of many who over the years has volunteered her time to this small but important task in the sanctuary. Recently she shared her thoughts on her efforts to help:

"When my four children were young and I would bring them to mass, often times they would mess up the pews. But there was always someone who would come behind them and clean up the church. Now that my children are grown, it is my turn to give back and straighten up the church after the little ones of others."

Call the office if you would like to be a Pew Angel, or just join in.

Se Buscan Angelitos de las Bancas

¿Tienes tiempo los lunes y/o viernes para ayudarnos a acomodar los materiales de las bancas?

Margarette Lesperance, quien asiste a nuestra parroquia y durante muchos años ha ayudado en esta tarea, compartió con nosotros lo siguiente:

"Cuando mis cuatro hijos estaban pequeños y yo los traía a Misa, siempre desordenaban las bancas. Pero siempre había alguien que las acomodaban otra vez. Ahora me toca a mí devolver el favor y ayudar a ordenar los materiales de las bancas."

Llama a la oficina parroquial si deseas ayudarnos como Angelito(a) de las Bancas.

Today's Gospel Reflection

Read Sunday's gospel: John 1:35-42

Reflection for Families

Try to imagine the excitement these first disciples felt when they heard Jesus' words. There must have been something very compelling in what Jesus said and the hope he gave these men in order for them to drop everything and not only follow him, but to go to others with the exciting news. That's how our enthusiasm should reach our children. It would be good to check our own level of enthusiasm for Jesus' call to us so that whenever our children hear our words and stories about Jesus, they will immediately recognize our passion.

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

Ask each family member to list the five most important things in their lives. These may be possessions, people, or things that can't be touched such as health. As each person explains their priorities, try to help one another see where God is in each item listed. After all have had a chance to share their lists and the family has talked together, check with family members to see if they would change their list in any way.

Discussion Starters

- I can understand how the disciples may have felt when they first met Jesus. Once I wasn't sure about how something would work out, but I followed my instincts and it was a great experience when...
- The people who I recognize in our own time to be disciples of Jesus are...
- The most rewarding thing about following Jesus is...
